

GOODS MUST MOVE.

MIMNAUGH'S GREATER DEPARTMENT STORE

Has thrown on their counters bargains unheard of before in order to have room for the new Fall and Winter Goods coming in. Many of these goods are offered at about half the original price. A lot of seasonable and choice goods embracing every thing imaginable in Fine Dress Goods, Domestic, Notions, Millinery, Underwear, Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Furnishings for gents. Carpets, Rugs, Matting and thousands of articles to numerous to mention, but must have your inspection to be appreciated. Come while they last and you will be pleased.

J. L. MIMNAUGH & COMPANY, Columbia, S. C.

PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Wayside Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man.

Give us your orders for job printing. Many a summer swallow will soon be homeward bound.

Go to Columbia Monday, Labor Day, and have a good time.

Miss Helen Corley is visiting relatives and friends at Irmo.

Fine Northern apples, just received, at M. D. Harman's grocery.

We want bright, newsy items from all sections of the county.

Meet your friends at The Bazaar fountain—they all drink there.

Mr. Lewis Roof, of Columbia, spent Sunday with his parents here.

School books and school supplies—all kinds, at the Bazaar.

Don't deride the hobby of your neighbor while riding your own.

A. D. Martin, Esq., has gone to Swansea, his old home, for a few days.

Say, reader, have you paid for your paper? If not, why not? Send it in.

Fresh candies, cakes and crackers always on hand at The Bazaar.

There is some money circulating and we would be pleased to see some of it coming our way. You understand?

Ice cream, different flavors, at The Bazaar fountain every Saturday afternoon.

Mr. J. L. Crout, of Gilbert No. 1, was in town on business Saturday and called to see us and left a dollar for his paper.

Mrs. L. F. Price, from Mims, Fla., is visiting relatives and friends in the Peter's section.

This is the season when merchants reap the greatest harvest from advertising.

Mr. H. L. Oswald continues to improve, much to the delight of his numerous friends.

Mr. Alfred J. Fox has returned from a business trip to New York and the Jamestown exposition.

Messrs. Alfred J. Fox, John S. Fox and Dr. Rice B. Harman spent Sunday on the Isle of Palms.

When you want good flour, meats, or groceries of any kind, always go to M. D. Harman's grocery.

Miss Charlotte Kleckly has returned from a delightful visit to the family of Mr. Tom Zohle, Columbia.

Services at St. Stephen's church next Sunday morning at 11 a. m., by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Hiller.

Fresh stock of Lion's famous hand made candy—the best in the world—just received at The Bazaar.

If you want to do a hustling fall business, place your advertisement in The Dispatch and you will be pleased.

Rev. Hiller and family returned Saturday from a delightful visit to relatives and friends in and around Leesville.

Lexington county's efficient county treasurer, Mr. F. W. Shealy, is now engaged filling out tax receipts for the fall collection.

Messrs. Sam P. Roof and R. D. Smith have returned from a delightful trip to the Jamestown exposition and New York.

Mr. Frank Derrick, of the Hilton section, has recently undergone an operation at the Columbia hospital for appendicitis.

Mrs. Carry Leaphart is desperately ill at her home in the upper part of town. Her many friends hope for her a speedy recovery.

The many friends of Mr. Robert Marks, of The Dispatch for will be grieved to learn that he is confined to his bed with fever.

Messrs. Albert and Tom Corley, sons of Mr. James Corley, and Master Hammond Corley, son of Sheriff Corley, spent Sunday at Tybee.

Green enameled porcelain lined ware all kinds, tinware, crockery, house and kitchen articles, you find at M. D. Harman's Grocery.

Mr. P. B. Edwards, of the Providence section, is having his residence painted, which will add much to the attractiveness of the place.

Mr. T. P. Meetze is having the store house next to the one occupied by himself repainted, which adds greatly to the appearance of the place.

Mr. W. W. Lucas of New Brookland, was thoughtful enough to send a dollar for his paper Friday by a friend. Now both of us feel better.

Mr. Martin G. Sox, R. F. D. 4, an honest and industrious citizen of his section, was here Saturday and paid us a pleasant and profitable call.

The Hayes bridge over big Hollow creek is in a deplorable condition, it is said, and needs the immediate attention of the county commissioners.

Mr. Olin E. Nunnemaker, of the Spring Hill section, was carried to Columbia last week by Dr. R. E. Mathias, and was operated on for appendicitis at the Columbia hospital.

LOST—In the town of Lexington about ten days or two weeks ago, an umbrella with name written on handle. Liberal reward if left at this office or returned to W. H. Hiller at the parsonage.

If you want a good buggy, or a set of harness cheap, call at the Lexington Department Store. These people can please you in quality and price.

Mr. Thos. J. Leaphart of Shandon, Columbia, was over on business yesterday and dropped in to see us and renewed his subscription to The Dispatch.

Deputy Sheriff Martin, of Richland, came over Monday afternoon and carried Basil Hartley, who was arrested here by Sheriff Corley, back to Columbia.

Miss Bertie Lucas, the daughter of Capt. and Mrs. G. A. Lucas, who has been confined to her bed for the past several days with fever, is much improved.

Mr. Joseph P. Shull of the Hollow Creek section, has raised some of the finest tomatoes this season that we have ever heard of—some of them weighing two pounds.

Mr. J. J. Schwartz has been elected night watchman at the Lexington Manufacturing Co. Mr. Schwartz is a good man and will give entire satisfaction to his employers.

Mrs. A. O. Wilson and her charming daughter, Miss Alice, of Lexington, are spending awhile with the former's daughter, Mrs. W. E. Moyer. Johnston News-Monitor.

Mr. T. Hayne Hare while passing on the streets of Columbia, Thursday gave us a friendly grip and handed us his dollar for a years subscription to The Dispatch. Thanks.

Miss Martha Hendrix Caughman returned home Saturday from a delightful visit to relatives in Columbia. She was accompanied by her charming friend, Miss Frances Bull.

Mr. C. F. Snyder, of Tampa, Fla., arrived yesterday to see Mrs. Snyder and the children, who are spending some time with Mrs. Snyder's parents, Col. and Mrs. M. D. Harman.

Miss Josie Meetze, of Ballentine, who was operated on at the Knowlton infirmary in Columbia last week, is doing nicely and will soon return home to the delight of her many friends.

Misses Emily and Mamie Edwards, the charming little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Edwards, of the Providence section, has returned from a pleasant visit to relatives in Columbia.

Mr. Jacob Earhardt accompanied by his friend, Mr. Jos. Lion, of Columbia, visited G. M. Harman Sunday. We were glad to have them with us and hope they will come again.

There are more lots for sale in Lexington than ever before and they are being sold cheap, considering their size and location. They are for sale by George Bell Timmerman or Alfred J. Fox.

Mr. G. Perry Caughman, of the firm of Caughman Brothers, dealers in stock, buggies, wagons, is spending a week at his old home, near Lexington. Perry is a clever young gentleman and fine business man.

The Delmar R. F. D. route has made some changes recently, which makes it convenient for a number of citizens. The route has been extended about a mile in length and serves a dozen or more families than formerly.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Manship, of Columbia, spent a few days here last week with relatives. Mrs. Manship is pleasantly remembered here as Miss Herbert Kaminer, and is greatly loved and admired by all.

Mr. Jeremiah Smith, of Conway, was here on business last Wednesday. He was accompanied by his step-daughter, Mrs. J. W. Ogilvie, who returned Monday after spending a few days pleasantly with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Job A. Wessinger, of Chapin, are visiting at the home of the latter's father, Capt. S. M. Roof. Mr. Wessinger is one of the most progressive business men in the county and an all round good citizen.

Solicitor Timmerman is resting up this week and getting ready for the Richland court which opens in Columbia Monday. He will have three weeks of criminal court there, and the next week after, he goes to Camden for two weeks. Five weeks at a time seems to be too much of a good thing.

Mrs. I. V. Wessinger and children, Messrs. Chalmers E., Hoy and Horry, and Miss Eunice, returned on Monday afternoon from the Jamestown exposition where they spent a week very pleasantly viewing the various sights of the "Big Show."

Mr. John C. Seay and a number of others from the Hollow creek section, were in town yesterday buying supplies. They find that there is no better place to secure bargains in all lines of merchandise than old Lexington.

Mrs. Arthur P. Harman, who has been in the Hills Infirmary, Montgomery, Ala., undergoing treatment for the past several weeks, is so much improved that she will soon return to Decatur, Ala., where the professor is superintendent of the city schools.

It is a fine thing for the town of Lexington that Hon. Geo. Bell Timmerman has placed about 20 building lots on the market. They are close to both the proposed trolley car lines and the people who buy them will in all probability double or triple their money in a short time.

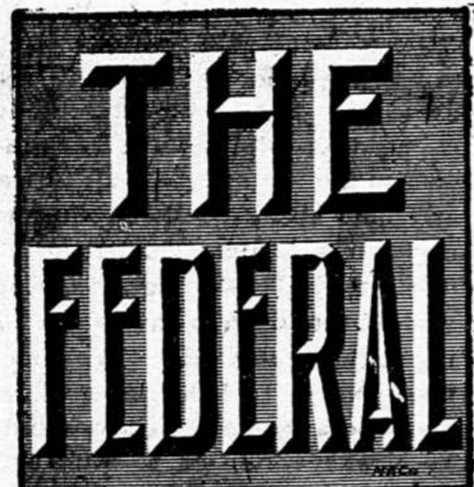

This is no hold-up. Every-time you spend a dollar with us we guarantee you a dollar's worth of value in exchange. That's fair.

Now while you are considering, make up your mind to come and see our $3.50 and $4.00 Men's Shoes the next time you come to Columbia. Come and see them, even if you are not ready to buy.

EHRlich's,

1613 Main St., COLUMBIA, S. C.
1627 Main St.,

BANKING LAWS

Make every Stockholder of this Bank liable to Depositors for twice the amount of stock owned.
Our Capital is $200,000 00
Our Surplus 110,000 00
Making a total security of... 510,000 00
Add to this the management of affairs by our efficient Officers and Board of Directors, and you can feel secure in placing your account with this Bank, established in 1868.
New Accounts Solicited.

Carolina National Bank, COLUMBIA, S. C.

W. A. CLARK, President.
T. H. MEIGHAN, Cashier.

For Sale,

90 or 100 acres of good farming land, adapted to small grain, corn, cotton, truck, etc., near my place, 3 miles from New Brookland. Apply for terms, etc., to M. W. SHULL, 41tf New Brookland, S. C.

EXPERIENCE. Years of Experience are at Your COMMAND.

Successful experience has been ours and we want everybody who has cause to feel that there is anything the matter with their eyes at all, to call and have us give them proper tests.

THERE ARE NO CHARGES FOR EXAMINATIONS.

CHARLES F. SENTZ,

OPTICIAN, JEWELER,

1439 Main St., Columbia, S. C.

CARLOAD OF

BABCOCK BUGGIES.

This is the season to drive out and enjoy the fresh country air. The pleasure is greater when you go in a "BABCOCK" BUGGY. Ask your doctor! He uses a Babcock because it rides easier and lasts longer than any other make.

Full Line of all Styles of Surries and Runabouts.

We carry at all times a good assortment of medium and cheap buggies that will give you good service. Buying so often and in such large quantities we are in position to sell you as cheap as you can buy at the factory.

LOWEST PRICES. TERMS RIGHT. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED IN EVERY PURCHASE.

Gregory-Conder Mule Co.

1117 Hampton Avenue, Columbia, S. C.

1892.

1906.

Lexington Savings Bank.

LEXINGTON, S. C.

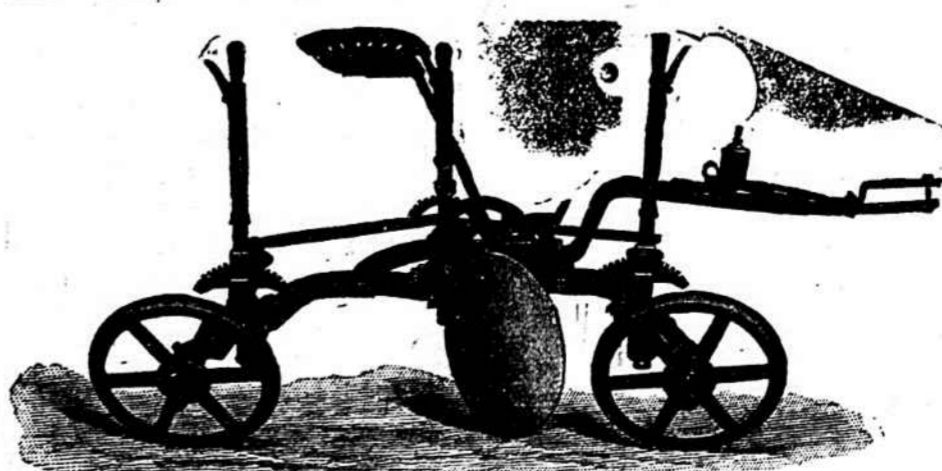

Oldest Bank in Lexington County.

Capital and Surplus $20,000.

DOES - A - GENERAL - BANKING - BUSINESS.

Accounts Invited on Favorable Terms. Interest at the Rate of 5 Per Cent Allowed in the Savings Department.

W. P. ROOF, Cashier.

W. P. ROOF,
LEXINGTON, S. C.,
Agent for all kinds of Farming Implements.

WRITE FOR PRICES.

For INSURANCE,

LIFE,
FIRE,
ACCIDENT,
SEE

E. G. Dreher,
LEXINGTON, S. C.

Strongest and Best Companies

F. W. WAGENER & COMPANY,

COTTON DEPARTMENT, Charleston, S. C.

We have arranged to handle Cotton to best advantage, and solicit consignments.

We give special attention to handling Staple Cotton, viz: "Allen Seed," "Florodora" and others of this grade.

FOR SALE—A new Champion New Home Sewing Machine at a bargain, for cash, or on easy terms. Apply at The Dispatch office.